THE DUCK INN AT A GLANCE

The Duck Inn is a neighborhood gastro-tavern and dining room located at Loomis Street and the Chicago River. Bordering Chicago's booming Pilsen and Bridgeport neighborhoods, it's housed in a pre-Prohibition era tavern that has continuously operated for almost a century. The Duck Inn showcases Chef Kris Delee's signature New American cuisine.

The extensive beverage program led by Executive Bar Director Brandon Phillips offers contemporary cocktails, craft beers and a creative wine service. Our menu combines playful bar snacks alongside traditional dishes to be enjoyed over multiple courses, or our Chef's tasting menus. The Duck Inn focuses on showcasing local, sustainable family farms and our menus always rotate with the seasons.

MICHELIN GUIDE

KEVIN HICKEY CHEF-PATRON

Kevin Hickey was born and raised in Chicago's iconic south-side neighborhood, Bridgeport. His culinary career spans 30 years, including the Four Seasons Hotel Group in Beverly Hills, Dublin, London, Atlanta, and two consecutive Michelin Stars in Chicago. The four-time Michelin Bib-Gourmand-winning Duck Inn's name resurrects Kevin's Great-Grandmother's Depression-era lunch counter which was located just blocks away from the current establishment.

BRANDON PHILLIPS PARTNER

In 2014, Brandon earned the title of Master Bartender at Chicago's renowned cocktail bar, The Drawing Room, catching the eye of industry professionals all over the country, including Chef Hickey. Soon after, Kevin and Brandon open Bottlefork, heralded by Wine Spectator & GQ as having some of the most innovative cocktails in the city. Included in Zagat's prestigious annual "30 Under 30" roundup, Phillips was also named "Bartender of the Year" by The Chicago Tribune in 2016.
